RESOLUTION 92-05-S
WAIVE $100 TUITION DEPOSIT FOR FINANCIAL AID & SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS.
INTRODUCED: APRIL 2, 1992

PURPOSE: For all students receiving financial aid, scholarships, and/or grants to be exempt from paying the $100 initial fee.

WHEREAS: This is the way it has been in the past, and;

WHEREAS: Student receiving financial aid or grants would not be able to come up with this large sum of money at one time- after all, that is why they receive the aid, and;

WHEREAS: Students receiving scholarships must decide whether or not they accept the scholarship before attending the university. This process would be a burden for the recipient in having to pay, and a hassle for the University to reimburse the students, and;

WHEREAS: As far as we can tell there is no logical purpose for this payment, and;

WHEREAS: The students would be very appreciative not to have to pay this fee.

THEREFORE: We, the members of the Associated Student Government believe that all recipients of financial aid, grants, or scholarships are waived of the responsibility to pay the $100 initial fee for the tuition.
